5 Years of serving logistics industry

India Warehousing Show is a well-established exhibition for logistics and supply chain professionals taking place every year at New Delhi, India.

Running in its 5th edition, the show is an ideal destination for businesses targeting growing markets of India and south Asia.

Logistics Industry of India

The logistics industry in India has strong growth drivers, is highly fragmented and provides ample opportunities for international companies to establish their presence.

- T&L industry in India grew at compound annual growth rates of more than 16% from 2007 to 2010, resulting in an overall market size greater than US$100 Bn.

- India's GDP is growing by around 7-9% annually, while its manufacturing sector is witnessing strong double digit growth rates.

The industry say it best!

This is the second time I am attending a Reed Manch event. India Warehousing Show is a must attend event for the industry. I must compliment the organizers on the quality of the event.

Hemanth DP, COO Hub Development, Cargo Business & Free Trade Zone, GMR, Hyderabad

India Warehousing Show is indeed a great platform to meet influential industry leaders from all over the country. I look forward to attend the event again next year.

Amit Banerjee, Head Supply Chain & Demand Fulfillment- India, Tata Motors

We are regular participants at India Warehousing Show and have found it to be the most valuable event for us.”

Dushyant Arya, Director, Indo Arya Logistics Ltd.

It's my 3rd year participation at the event and honestly, I find this show much better than many others. This is the show we are going to stick with as it has worked out pretty well for us.

Edward Ray, General Manager, Daifuku Co. Ltd

We have always received a good response for our products at the event and the latest edition was the best so far.

Ankur Bedi, Director – Business Development & Projects, Cold Steel Corporation

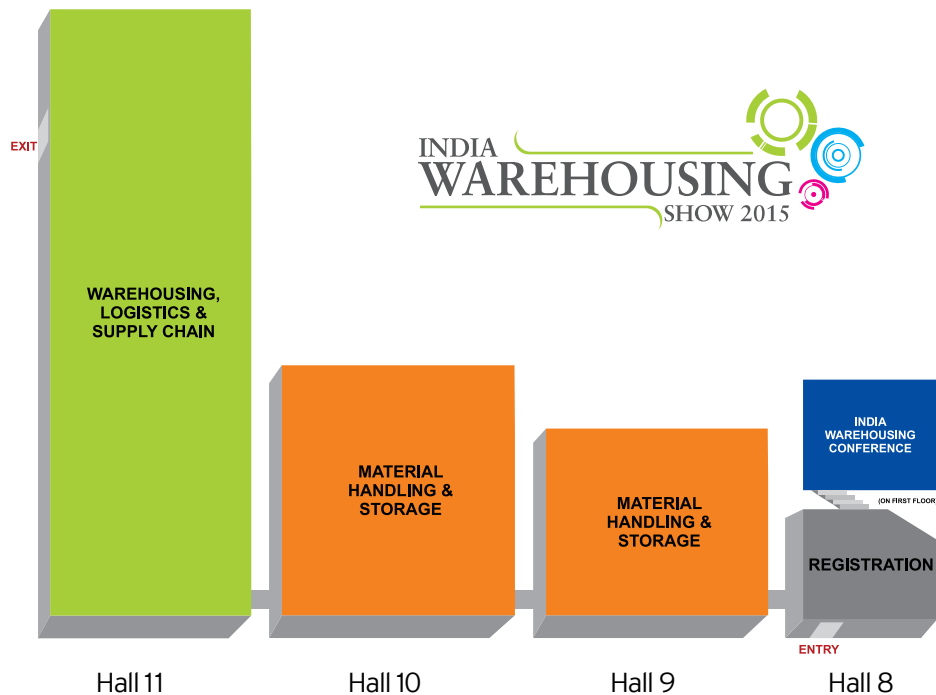

India Warehousing Show is a good representation of the transport & logistics industry. I attended the India Warehousing Conference and found program quite engaging. I am looking forward to the next edition!

Ashok Khurana, Regional Business Head, Google Enterprise India
